

Towards a Safe Chemicals Innovation Agenda From Substitution to Safe-by-design

Wednesday 28th March 2018

NH Hotel, Schiphol Airport, Amsterdam, The Netherlands

Agenda

- 09.15 Registration and refreshments
- 10.00 Welcome, agenda and process
Joris van der Voet, deputy director Directorate for Safety and Risks, Ministry of Infrastructure and Water Management
Peter Woodward, Conference facilitator
- The context for the safe chemicals research and innovation challenge
Joel Tickner, Associate Professor, University of Massachusetts Lowell
Table discussions and feedback overarching observations
- Presentation of draft R&D agenda
Presentation by Kastalie Bougas, Senior Consultant, Wood
Table and plenary discussion and key observations
- 12.00 Lunch
- 12.50 Refining the research questions
Table groups consider the research questions and identify additional research avenues
- 14.40 Refreshment break
- 15.00 Towards faster and more effective progress on the research innovation agenda
Thoughts on the way forward:
 - Georgios Katalagarianakis, project officer advanced materials and nanotechnologies, European Commission, DG Research and Innovation
 - Matti Vainio, Head of Unit Risk Management Implementation, European Chemicals
 - Joel Tickner, Associate Professor, University of Massachusetts Lowell
- 15.20 Address by Stientje Van Veldhoven – van der Meer, State Secretary for Infrastructure and Water Management, the Netherlands
- Table discussions to identify two key propositions/messages
Feedback ideas and suggestions to ‘Sounding Board’ panel of speakers
- Final remarks
Joris van der Voet, Ministry of Infrastructure and Water Management
- 16.30 Close